

ASX Announcement
20 December 2012

CULTANA ACCESS DEED SIGNED

Strategic Energy Resources Limited (ASX: SER) is pleased to announce that the Deed of Access (Exploration) has been signed with the Commonwealth of Australia, represented by the Department of Defence, for access to our Exploration Licence 5010, within the Cultana Army Training Area in South Australia.

Mark Muzzin, Managing Director, SER stated: "This is a major milestone for SER and our joint venture partner, U Energy Pty Ltd. It has been a great effort by all involved and we are all looking forward to commencing our exploration program in 2013."

EL5010 Cultana, is held 75% by SER and 25% by U Energy Pty Ltd, a wholly owned subsidiary of Kingston Resources Ltd.

Now that the Deed of Access has been executed, the Joint Venture will commence the planned HELITEM survey in the New Year.

"2013 will be an exciting year for the Company and we look forward to starting our maiden drilling program in this, our flagship project," concluded Mr Muzzin.

Further information:

Mark Muzzin
Managing Director